WE'RE HERE TO HELP

Alec Williams, Senior Advisor

During my time working in China for a private equity firm, I received heartbreaking news that my grandfather needed assistance with his care. I made the decision to return to Oregon to support him. Over time, I became a Senior Advisor, using my firsthand experience to support others facing similar challenges with empathy, compassion, and understanding. Helping seniors and their families is incredibly rewarding, as I guide them through finding the right placement while addressing their emotional needs every step of the way.

They may forget what you said, but they will never forget how you made them feel. -Carl Buechner
